

Migrating in small- and medium-sized towns. Experiences, challenges, perspectives for participation.

Proceedings of the mid-term PISTE
Conference, Thessaloniki, 13-14/03/2023

Edited by Athanasia Andriopoulou

PISTE has received funding from the European Union's Asylum Migration Integration and Integration Fund (AMIF/2020/ AG/CALL-03) under grant agreement No 101038374

1506
UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI
DI URBINO
CARLO BO

UUP URBINO
UNIVERSITY PRESS

MIGRATOWNS

No.2

Migrating in small- and medium-sized towns.
Experiences, challenges, perspectives for participation.

Proceedings of the mid-term PISTE
Conference, Thessaloniki, 13-14/03/2023

edited by Athanasia Andriopoulou

1506
UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI
DI URBINO
CARLO BO

UUP URBINO
UNIVERSITY PRESS

MIGRATING IN SMALL- AND MEDIUM-SIZED TOWNS.
EXPERIENCES, CHALLENGES, PERSPECTIVES FOR PARTICIPATION

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MID-TERM PISTE CONFERENCE, THESSALONIKI, 13-14/03/2023

PISTE (Participation in Small- and Medium-Sized Towns: Experiences, Exchanges, Experiments)

Scientific editor of the series: Eduardo Barberis (University of Urbino)

Scientific Committee of the series: Tiziana Caponio (University of Turin), Irene Ponzio (FIERI), Nico Bazzoli (University of Urbino), Alba Angelucci (University of Eastern Piedmont), Giuliana Sanò (University of Messina), Ayhan Kaya (Bilgi University, Istanbul), Ayse Çağlar (University of Vienna), Adriano Cancellieri (IUAV), Landry Mawungu (Hannah Arendt Institute for Diversity, Urbanity and Citizenship), Tihomir Sabchev (Independent Scholar), Elizabeth Below (NeMO), Helle Krunke (University of Copenhagen), Stijn Oosterlynck (University of Antwerp), Katrin Grossmann (University of Applied Sciences Erfurt), Athanasia Andriopoulou (University of Urbino).

Editorial Committee of the series: Athanasia Andriopoulou (University of Urbino), Fabio De Blasis (University of Urbino), Silvia Pitzalis (University of Urbino), Federico Rossi (University of Urbino), Gül Ince-Beko (University of Urbino), Valentina Marconi (University of Urbino).

Steering Committee of the PISTE Project: Eduardo Barberis (University of Urbino), Stijn Oosterlynck (University of Antwerp), Katrin Grossmann (University of Applied Sciences Erfurt), Alekos Anastasiou (Human Rights 360).

PISTE Project partnership: University of Applied Sciences Erfurt (Germany, WP2 Coordinator), University of Urbino Carlo Bo (Italy, PISTE Project Coordinator), University of Antwerp (Belgium), Human Rights 360 (Greece), Municipality of Bebra (Germany), Municipality of Fermignano (Italy), Municipality of Ninove (Belgium), Municipality of Voio (Greece).

Contributors in this volume: Athanasia Andriopoulou, Rosa S. Groen, Karijn Nijhoff Gijs Gesen, Anna Krasteva, Dimitrios Rafail Tservenis, Pinelopi Vergou, Monica Gilli, Fabio Lucchini, Andrea Membretti, Andrea Pettrachin, Kerstin Schenkel, Sven Messerschmidt, Johannes Glöckner, Katrin Grossmann, Agnieszka Wierzbicka, Babetta Wyckaert, Hans Leinfelder, Pascal De Decker, Margherita Asquasciati, Claudia Priano, Harry Kalliaras.

ISBN 9788831205375 (print edition)

ISBN 9788831205351 (PDF)

ISBN 9788831205368 (EPUB)

Digital editions are released with license Creative Commons Attribution-Non Commercial 4.0 International CC-BY-NC, whose full text is available at the URL:

<https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc/4.0/>.

Digital editions are published online in Open Access at:

<https://press.uniurb.it/index.php/migratowns/catalog>

© Authors and PISTE Project for the text, 2023

© Urbino University Press for the present publication

Published by Urbino University Press | Via Saffi, 2 | 61029 Urbino

Website: <https://uup.uniurb.it/> | email: uup@uniurb.it

PISTE has received funding from the European Union's Asylum Migration Integration and Integration Fund (AMIF/2020/AG/CALL-03) under grant agreement No 101038374

Table of contents

Introduction	13
Athanasia Andriopoulou (University of Urbino “Carlo Bo”)

References	24
------------	----

SECTION 1	27
------------------	-----------

EU Mobile Citizens: Challenges and successes. How small to medium-sized towns and businesses deal with EU Mobile Citizens	29
Rosa S. Groen (The Hague University of Applied Science), Karijn Nijhoff (The Hague University of Applied Science), Gijs Giesen (The Hague University of Applied Science)

Introduction	30
Theoretical perspectives	32
Methodology	34
Results	36
The European perspective	36
The local policy perspective	38
Housing	40
Registration	41
The business and temporary working agency perspective	42

Conclusion and discussion	44
References	47

From Zero Migration to Migration Crises and to Local Citizenship: Contrasting Transitions in a Small Town at the Triple Border of Bulgaria, Türkiye and Greece	51
Anna Krasteva (Policy and Citizens’ Observatory: Migration, Digitalisation, Climate)

Introduction	52
‘It’s the economy, stupid’ vs places matter	56
Temporality – a theoretical lens for the urban and regional migration kaleidoscope	60
If migration crises did not exist, they would have been invented by populist politicians	63
Local citizenship for constructing the place and sense-making practices	65
Place-based practices promoting the territory’s attractiveness	67
Conclusion	68
References	70
 Migrant incorporation in small towns and rural areas of Crete and Sardinia: a comparative analysis	 75
Dimitrios Rafail Tservenis (Danube University Krems)
Introduction	76
Methodology & Data Sources	77
Case studies selection	78
Questionnaire	79
Classifying the urban/rural typologies	80
Fieldwork key findings	82
Respondents’ profile and settlement in rural areas	82
Structural features of the place of residence	85
Integration outcomes and well-being at the place of residence	86
Conclusions	89
References	92
 Processes of micro-segregation and refugee school education in small and medium-sized cities	 97
Pinelopi Vergou (University of Thessaly)

Introduction	98
Methods	100
The case studies	101
The politics of emergency and migration mobility	102
Dispersal immigration policies and refugees' education	105
Interrupted living and accessibility	108
Micro-segregation processes and educational inequalities: an old story in a new context	111
Conclusions	116
References	119

SECTION 2 127

Socio-economic integration and migrants' agency in the Italian Alps 129

Monica Gilli (Università degli Studi di Torino),
 Fabio Lucchini (Università eCampus),
 Andrea Membretti (University of the Free State)

1. Migrants' agency in the light of social structures and infrastructures	130
2. The self-construction of a public space of recognition: an action-research in the Alps of Piedmont	133
3. From action-research to policy design: conclusive remarks	140
Acknowledgements	144
References	145

Drivers and Constraints for Integration Policy Learning in Small European Localities 149

Andrea Pettrachin (Collegio Carlo Alberto)

Introduction	150
Three major constraints to policy transfer in the integration policy field	152

Enabling Factors for Policy Diffusion	154
Which role for the Ukrainian 'refugee crisis'?	157
References	159
Migrant Political Participation in Small Towns. The Case of Bebra	163
Kerstin Schenkel (University of Applied Science Erfurt), Sven Messerschmidt (University of Applied Science Erfurt), Johannes Glöckner (University of Applied Science Erfurt), Katrin Großmann (University of Applied Science Erfurt)
Introduction	164
Conceptual approach	164
The case of Bebra in consideration of small-town features	167
Institutional framework for political participation	167
Structural conditions	168
Public migration discourse in Germany, Hesse and Bebra	170
Local (key) actors, (in)formal networks and migrant stakeholders	172
Migrant political participation in Bebra	173
Conclusion	175
Extend political participation in small- and medium-sized towns	176
A call for more intersectionally oriented research	176
References	178
Small destination towns of Ukrainian refugees in Poland. Case study of Karpacz.	183
Agnieszka Wierzbicka (University of Zielona Góra)
Introduction	183
Methods	185
Data	186
Spatial-analysis framework	187
Mapping the settlement patterns	187
Performed spatial analysis	188
Results	190

Case study of Karpacz	196
Discussion and Future Directions	198
References	200
Spatial capital as a perspective on the integration of newcomers in small and medium-sized towns.	203
Babette Wyckaert (KU Leuven), Hans Leinfelder (KU Leuven), Pascal De Decker (KU Leuven)
Introduction	204
1. Individual's capital	205
2. The importance of 'place' within integration policies	207
3. Spatial capital: an overview	209
4. Data and methods to assess daily use of space	211
4.1 Approach through time-space research	211
5. Results	215
5.1 Position capital	215
5.1 Situation capital	219
6. Discussion & conclusion	221
6.1 Spatial capital and structure-agency	221
6.2 Integration (policy) is spatial (policy)	223
References	226

SECTION 3 233

Providing services in inner areas: challenges and solutions 235

Margherita Asquasciati (Municipality of Fontanigorda),
Claudia Priano (Municipality of Fontanigorda)

Introduction	236
1. The context	238
1.1 The geographic context	238

1.2 Involvement in the National Inner Areas Strategy	240
1.3 Involvement in SAI, the Italian public system for the reception of the asylum seekers and refugees	243
1.4 New challenges arise from the geographical and social context	244
2. Challenges and solutions	246
2.1 Challenge: how to ensure adult education in Fontanigorda and Rovegno?	246
2.2: Challenge: how to ensure professional training?	248
2.3 Challenge: how to grant support for job placement?	250
2.4 Challenge: underused public library	252
2.5 Challenge: a CULTURAL HUB in an abandoned school?	253
Conclusion	256
References	257
Web references	257
The impact of migration in small-medium-sized cities and the role of the local authorities in Greece. The Municipality of Trikala.	259
Harry Kalliaras (Municipality of Trikala), Athanasia Andriopoulou (University of Urbino Carlo Bo)
The impact of migration in small-medium sized cities in Greece	260
1. Local models of integration	262
1.1 Central Greece: Larissa, Karditsa, Trikala. The Municipality of Trikala	262
1.2 The role of the Local Authorities in Small-Medium Towns in Greece	265
1.3 Policies for local actors	266
Conclusions	267
References	269

